MLK 2022
JANUARY 16 - 24
COMBATING RACISM & BUILDING COMMUNITY

JOIN US!

SUNDAY, JAN. 16
1:00PM-3:00PM
via ZOOM
DAY OF LEARNING
A Knock at Midnight is a call from MLK. Join us in this community collaboration (details on engage) to learn and engage in a unique program. This will be a time to dialogue around hope, emotional, social, & spiritual renewal and community building.

TUESDAY, JAN. 18
6:30PM-8:00PM
via ZOOM
SOCIAL CHANGE WHEEL
How can you be an agent for social change? Explore the Social Change Wheel 2.0, a model from the University of Minnesota’s Campus Compact.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 19
12:15PM-1:15PM
via ZOOM
MLK TRIVIA KAHOOT
Test your knowledge of the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Top 3 winners will receive Amazon eGift cards valued at $50, $35 and $15!

THURSDAY, JAN. 20
7:00PM-8:00PM
via ZOOM
ALUMNI IN ACTION
Filmmaker Jacob Mejias, a May ’21 PSU BW graduate (CAS), will discuss directing his documentary about racial justice protests in Philly in the summer of 2020.

FRIDAY, JAN. 21
8:00PM
via ZOOM
"I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO"
Join us for a screening of this 2016 documentary expanding the work of James Baldwin on the peril America faces from institutionalized racism.

THURSDAY, JAN. 20
12:15PM-1:15PM
via ZOOM
STUDENT HUNGER @ AB
Learn about student hunger on our campus and beyond from the student interns engaged in operating Abington’s Campus Food Pantry.

MONDAY, JAN. 24
12:00PM-2:00PM
via ZOOM
MLK LEGACY AWARDS
ODEI’s signature event recognizes outstanding advocates for diversity, equity, and inclusion at the interpersonal, unit, institutional and community level who are tackling social justice issues and dismantling barriers. Specifically, they have supported, facilitated or assisted with programs and initiatives that enhance opportunity and success for underrepresented populations.

MONDAY, JAN. 17
10:00AM-12:00PM
@ Penn State Brandywine
DAY OF SERVICE
Students, faculty, staff and the public are invited to this morning of service to honor Dr. King’s life and legacy. Student volunteers will lead a variety of family-friendly service projects, crafts, and educational activities.

SUNDAY, JAN. 16
1:00PM-3:00PM
via ZOOM
DAY OF LEARNING
A Knock at Midnight is a call from MLK. Join us in this community collaboration (details on engage) to learn and engage in a unique program. This will be a time to dialogue around hope, emotional, social, & spiritual renewal and community building.

TUESDAY, JAN. 18
6:30PM-8:00PM
via ZOOM
SOCIAL CHANGE WHEEL
How can you be an agent for social change? Explore the Social Change Wheel 2.0, a model from the University of Minnesota’s Campus Compact.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 19
12:15PM-1:15PM
via ZOOM
MLK TRIVIA KAHOOT
Test your knowledge of the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Top 3 winners will receive Amazon eGift cards valued at $50, $35 and $15!

THURSDAY, JAN. 20
7:00PM-8:00PM
via ZOOM
ALUMNI IN ACTION
Filmmaker Jacob Mejias, a May ’21 PSU BW graduate (CAS), will discuss directing his documentary about racial justice protests in Philly in the summer of 2020.

FRIDAY, JAN. 21
8:00PM
via ZOOM
"I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO"
Join us for a screening of this 2016 documentary expanding the work of James Baldwin on the peril America faces from institutionalized racism.

THURSDAY, JAN. 20
12:15PM-1:15PM
via ZOOM
STUDENT HUNGER @ AB
Learn about student hunger on our campus and beyond from the student interns engaged in operating Abington’s Campus Food Pantry.

MONDAY, JAN. 24
12:00PM-2:00PM
via ZOOM
MLK LEGACY AWARDS
ODEI’s signature event recognizes outstanding advocates for diversity, equity, and inclusion at the interpersonal, unit, institutional and community level who are tackling social justice issues and dismantling barriers. Specifically, they have supported, facilitated or assisted with programs and initiatives that enhance opportunity and success for underrepresented populations.

= OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

PennState Abington
PennState Brandywine
PennState World Campus
Center for Ethics & Civic Engagement